

11 Ways to Spring Break in Washington County

Don't know what to do this Spring Break? We've got 11 ways to fill up your week's schedule this year. (And it doesn't involve crazy Spring Breakers in Miami. Huh.)

1. Fore

Pick up a golf club at the Twin City Country Club in Tennille, GA. featuring a peaceful 18-hole golf course. It's Master's Week, so enjoy your own round of golf at our very own local course.

Monday – Sunday: 8 a.m. – 7 p.m. 1580 GA-68, Tennille, GA 31089.

2. Slides Ahoy

Need to keep those kids from bouncing off the walls? Washington County has plenty of parks featuring fun playgrounds scattered all around, such as the Tennille City Park. The kids will have a blast swinging, sliding and running all their energy out. A walking trail is a plus for adults too.

130 Smith St., Tennille, GA 31089.

3. Bookworms for Life

Take some time to relax at the Rosa M. Tarbutton Memorial Library in Sandersville, GA. They have hundreds of books and magazines to keep you and your Spring-Breaking family at bay.

Open Tuesday – Saturday. 314 S Harris St., Sandersville, GA 31082.

4. Cool and Icy

We hope that your Spring Break will be nice and warm so that you can enjoy it to the fullest. But, if your Break gets a little too warm for comfort, the Dairy Lane and Dairy Queen in Sandersville, GA are always there to save the day with yummy ice cream.

The Dairy Lane: Sunday – Thursday: 8 a.m. – 10 p.m., Friday – Saturday: 8 a.m. – 11 p.m. 839 S Harris St., Sandersville, GA 31082.

Dairy Queen: Monday – Sunday: 10 a.m. – 10 p.m. 1232 S Harris St., Sandersville, GA 31082.

5. Prison Pals (Wait...What)

We know that going to jail probably isn't necessarily on your to-do list this Spring Break, but a tour in the Old Jail Museum in Sandersville, GA might just change your mind. Plus, there are tons of historical information on generations before us. (And you thought you didn't want to learn anything over Spring Break.)

Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday: 2 p.m. – 5 p.m., Saturday: 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. 129 Jones St., Sandersville, GA 31082.

6. Peanuts and Picasso

If you're having an internal war between embracing your inner city or country side for Spring Break, this just might be an answered prayer. Right now, the Fall Line Artist Guild is holding its Life of the Georgia

Farmer Art Show, a unique mix of art and life in Georgia country. You can visit the art show all the way until April 28th, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

7. Shop 'til you Drop

If you're feeling the urge to splurge this Spring Break, then make a stop at one of our shops and #shopWACOfirst. Whether you're craving antiques, a garden project, latest fashion statement or finishing a DIY project there's a little bit of something for just about everyone in Washington County.

8. Flying Saucers Ahead

If you have the accuracy for golf but crave the excitement of this trending sport, then disc golf is exactly what you're looking for. And thankfully, Washington County has its very own disc golf course here in Sandersville, GA: Depot Disc Golf! Plus, if you've never heard of or tried disc golf, what better time than Spring Break?

9. Whale of a Sale

Everyone loves a good find at a garage sale, and this one's going to be huge. All you have to do is follow the red balloons to Warthen, GA, and you'll find the Whale of a Sale. The sale starts April 7th at 8 a.m.!

Warthen is located on Highway 15 North

10. Park Adventure

Join Hamburg State Park for their annual Spring Fling on April 7th, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Featuring arts, crafts, food, and family fun, all within a State Park known for its camping and fishing adventures.

6071 Hamburg State Park Rd., Mitchell, GA 30820.

11. I'll Fly Away

Come to Kaolin Field on April 7th and see these pilots off as they speed all the way to Winter Haven, FL in the Sunrise 100 Air Race! You can meet the pilots, get a photo, tour the airport, and destroy the competition in corn-hole, all with yummy food trucks conveniently on stand-by. And for the evening, you can get a ticket to the awards dinner. The fun starts at 9 a.m.!
